1 Fill in the gaps with will or be going to and the verb in brackets, as in the example.

1 A: I'm too tired to wash the dishes.
B: Don't worry! I ► 'll wash (wash) them for you.

2 A: I don't want to tidy my room.
B: If you don't, I ..... (not/let) you go to the cinema.

3 A: Do you have any plans for this evening?
B: Yes, I ..... (visit) my friend, Maria.

4 A: Can somebody answer the phone?
B: I ..... (get) it.

5 A: What are you doing on Friday afternoon?
B: I ..... (have) lunch with a client.

2 Circle the correct item.

1 The bus to London ..... at 8:30 tomorrow morning.

A leaves B is leaving
C going to leave

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2 She has enough money now, so she ..... that computer.

A is going to buy B buys C is buying

3 I'm very tired. I ..... sleep early tonight.

A am going B go to C will go to

4 I ..... you as soon as I arrive at the hotel.

A will call B called C call

5 We can't come with you this weekend. We ..... the children's bedrooms.

A are painting B paint C will paint

6 Please tell me! I promise I ..... tell anyone.

A didn't B am not C won't

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first. Use no more than three words.

1 Kim is planning to make a cake after lunch.
After lunch, Kim is ► going to make a cake.

2 My older brother refuses to take me to the cinema tonight.
My older brother says he .....
..... me to the cinema tonight.

3 I promise I will be on time tomorrow.
I promise I ..... late tomorrow.

4 Ben has arranged to meet Ellie later this afternoon.
Ben is .....
Ellie later this afternoon.

5 Emma's intention is to start Spanish lessons this summer.
Emma is .....
Spanish lessons in the summer.

LIVEWORKSHEETS