In New York City, a lot of people don't have gardens outside their home. So people make gardens all over the city. The gardens are for all people. Young people and old people help in the gardens. They work hard! They grow food—apples, beans, carrots, potatoes, and tomatoes. Some gardens have playgrounds next to them. Children play in the playgrounds. People are happy in the gardens.

1. The gardens are only for children / for all people.
2. People work hard / play games in the gardens.
3. People grow / eat food in the garden.
4. There are schools / playgrounds next to the gardens.
5. The children can play outside / inside.
