Watch and pay attention to the following learning material video!

I. Multiple Choice

1. The generic structure of narrative text is…
   a. Orientation – Events – Re-orientation
   b. Orientation – Complication – Resolution – Re-orientation
   c. General Classification – Description
   d. Newsworthy Events – Background Events – Sources

2. What is the purpose of the narrative text…
   a. To describe the story
   b. To explain the story
   c. To amuse the reader about the story
   d. To persuade the reader about the story

LIVEWORKSHEETS

The following text is for question 3.

Once upon a time there were four little rabbits. Their names were Flopsy, Mopsy, Cotton-tail and Peter. One morning they were allowed to play outside. Their mother reminded them not to go to Mr. McGregor's garden because their father had an accident there.

Flopsy, Mopsy, and Cotton-tail were good little rabbits. They went down the lane to pick blueberries. But Peter was naughty. He ran straight away to Mr. McGregor's garden. He ate some lettuces, French beans, and radishes. Suddenly, he met Mr. McGregor. Peter was very frightened and rushed away as fast as he could. He lost a pair of shoes and a jacket while he was running. Peter never stopped running or locked behind him till he got home. During the evening, he was sick because he was so tired. He had to drink some medicine while three of his brother had bread, milk and blackberries for super.

3. What can we learn from the story…
   a. Being naughty will make our life easier.
   b. Obeying our parents will make our life end.
   c. Obeying our parents. And we will get the best our life.
   d. Being greedy will bring us to a better life.

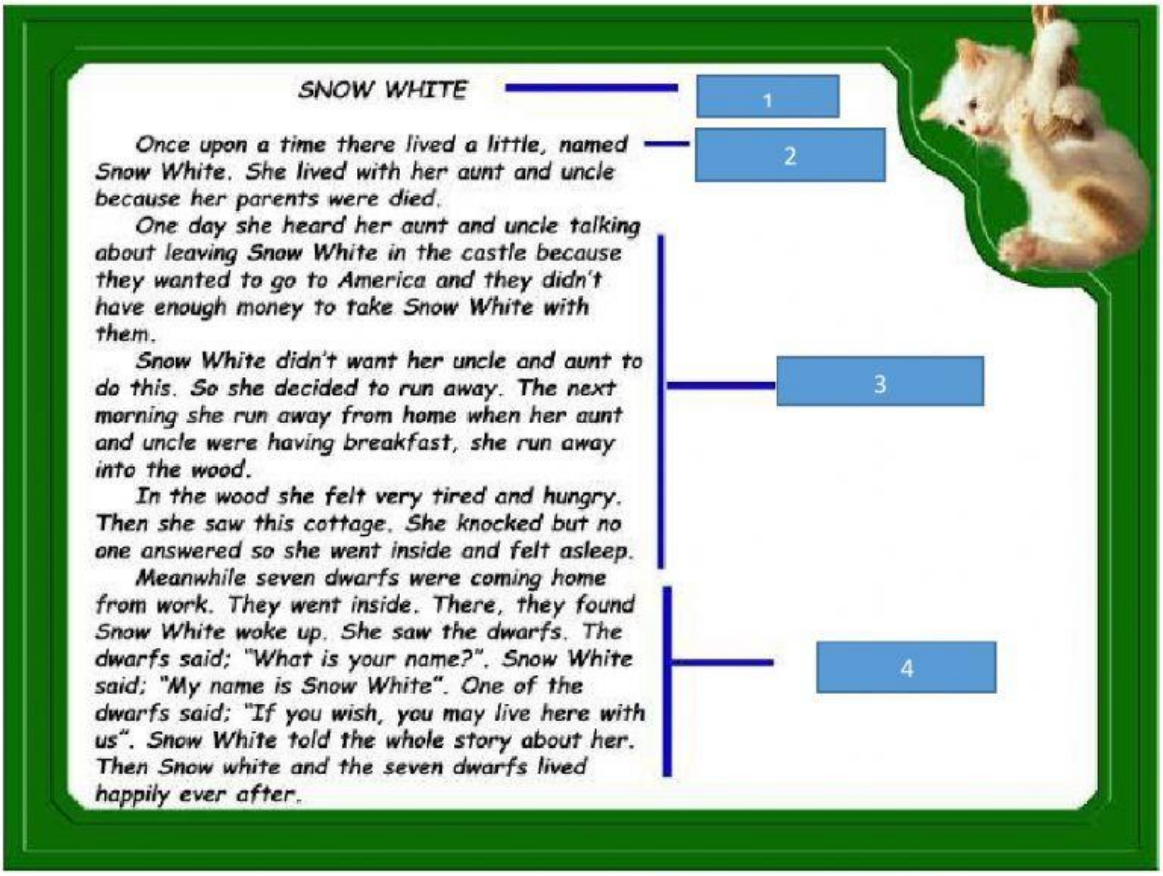
4. What is the orientation of narrative text?
   a. The end paragraph of the story.
   b. The opening paragraph where the characters of the story are introduced.
   c. The middle paragraph of the story.
   d. The social function of the text.

5. What is complication of the text…
   a. Where the problems in the story is began developed.
   b. Where the problems in the story is solved.
   c. Where the story is given the introduction.
   d. Where the story is ended.

6. These are kind of narrative text, except…
   a. Fable
   b. Fairytale
   c. Poem
   d. Legend

LIVEWORKSHEETS

I. Choice of Names



7. The name of the part numbered 1 on the text is ….

8. The name of the part numbered 2 on the text is ….

9. The name of the part numbered 3 on the text is ….

10. The name of the part numbered 4 on the text is ….

II. Connecting the Answer Lines

THE TYPE OF NARRATIVE TEXT

LIVEWORKSHEETS

11.

12.
13.
14.

15.

FABLE

FAIRYTALE

HORROR

SCIENCE FICTION

LEGEND

LIVEWORKSHEETS

III. Fill in the Blank

STRONG WIND

Once there was a great warrior named Strong Wind. He lived with his sister in a tent by the sea. Strong Wind was able to make himself (16)_____. His sister could see him, but no one else could. He had said he would marry the first woman who could see him as he came at the end of the day.

Many women came up to his tent to watch for him. When his sister saw him coming, she would ask, "Do you see him?"

Each girl would answer, "Oh, yes! I see him!"

Then Strong Wind's sister would ask, "What is he pulling his sled with?" And then the girls would answer, "with a (17)_____" or "with a wooden pole."

Then Strong Wind's sister would know that they were lying, because their guesses were wrong.

A chief lived in a village. His wife had died, and he had three daughters. One was much younger than the other two. She was gentle, kind and beautiful, but her sisters were (18)_____ of her and treated her badly. They cut off her long black hair and they made her wear rags. They also burned her face with coals so that she would be ugly. They lied to their father that she did these things to herself. But she remained calm and (19)_____.

The two older sisters also went to try and see Strong Wind. When he was coming, Strong Wind's sister asked them, "Do you see him?"

"Oh, yes! I see him!" Each of them answered.

"What is his bow made out of?" asked Strong Wind's sister.

"Out of iron," answered one. "Out of wood," answered the other.

"You have not see him," said Strong Wind's sister.

Strong Wind himself heard them and knew that they had lied. They went into the tent, but still they could not see him. They went home very sad.

One day the youngest daughter went to try and see Strong Wind. She was wearing (20)_____, and burn covered her face. People laughed at her, but she kept going. When she got to Strong Wind's tent she waited.

Gentle Invisible Rags

Jealous Rope

LIVEWORKSHEETS