

VOCABULARY FOR PRACTICE :

WORD	MEANING	USAGE
Sound (adj.)	• In good condition or healthy	• Considering his age, his body is surprisingly sound.
Sound (verb)	• to seem good, interesting and strange etc from what is said or written	• Your job sounds really interesting.
Exercise (noun)	• physical activity that you do to make your body strong and healthy	• Swimming is a perfect form of exercise.
Exercise (verb)	• to use power in order to achieve something	• The commissioner exercised his power to help the victim.
Routine (noun)	• usual or fixed way of doing things	• There's no set/fixed routine at work.

Identify and mark the underlined words as noun / verb / adjective / adverb on the basis of their usage.

Sound (Adjective)	Sound (Verb)	Exercise (Noun)	Exercise (Verb)
	The empty vessels make the greatest sound .
	A cracked bell is never sound .
	A sound mind in a sound body.
	Dolphins use sound to communicate with each other.
	The garden was humming with the sound of bees.
	Reading is to the mind what exercise is to the body.
	Take vigorous exercise for several hours a week.
	Try to exercise as often as possible.
	You should exercise extreme caution when driving in fog.
	Diet and exercise are equally important.
	Make exercise a part of your daily routine .
	The players had to change their daily routine and lifestyle.
	It is everyday routine .
	Police conducted a routine search of all the houses in the area.		