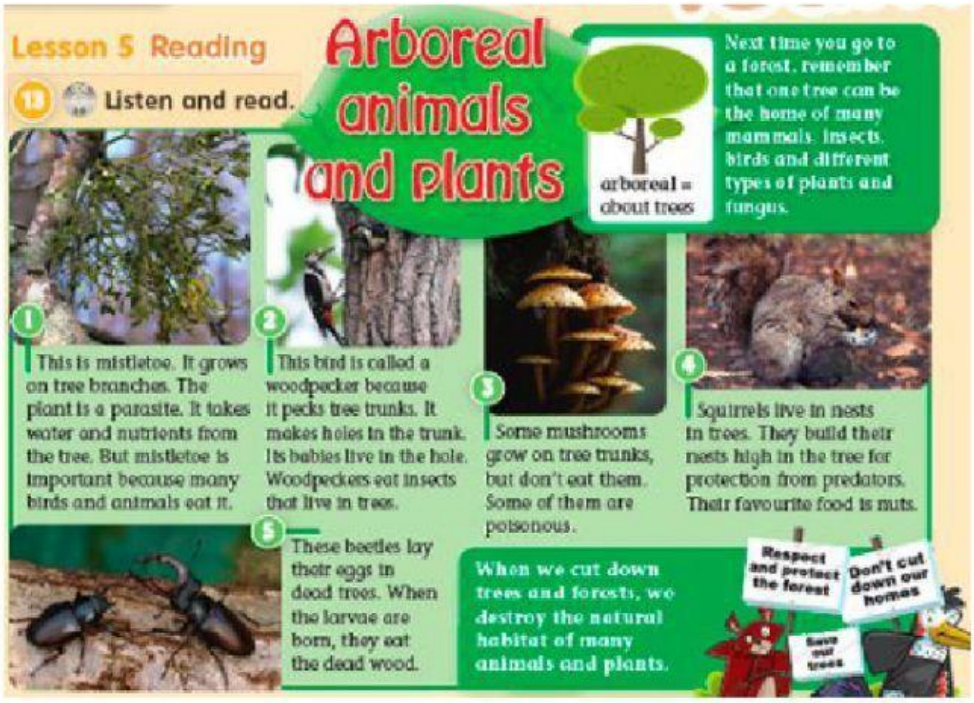
Tiger 4 Unit 6

Forests



1.- Match.

1 Which photos show a mammal, a fungus, a bird, an insect and a plant?

2 Which animals eat dead wood?

3 Which animals eat insects?

4 Why is mistletoe important?

5 Where do some mushrooms grow?

6 Which animals eat nuts?

- Squirrels eat nuts.
- Mistletoe is important because many birds and animals eat it.
- Beetles and their larvae eat dead wood.
- Woodpeckers eat insects.
- Some mushrooms grow on tree trunks.
- Photo 1: plant (mistletoe).
  Photo 2: a bird (a woodpecker).
  Photo 3: a fungus (mushrooms).
  Photo 4: a mammal (a squirrel).
  Photo 5: an insect (beetles).

2.- Write sentences.

A squirrel A mushroom Mistletoe A woodpecker A beetle	insect plant mammal bird fungus

1 A squirrel is a mammal.
2 _____
3 _____
4 _____
5 _____

3.- Correct the sentences.

Mistletoe grows on tree leaves.
Mistletoe grows on tree branches.
Beetles lay their eggs in tall trees.

All mushrooms grow on tree trunks.

Squirrels live in houses in trees.

Woodpeckers eat mushrooms.

4.- Put in the right rectangles. [¿Necesitas un diccionario? ¿Wordreference?]

badger beetle buzzard mushroom tree flower wasp fox deer ant owl

mammals	birds	insects	plants	fungus