Conditional with can / can´t

Nombre _____

I´d rather + activity + than + activity

I´d rather = I would rather  Preferiría

Conditional sentences with can/can´t have two parts:

If + Present Simple, we can + Verb

If it´s rainig, we can go shopping

We can change the order of the two parts, but we don´t use a comma:

We can + Verb If + Present Simple

We can go shopping if it´s raining

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| If it´s | raining, | we can | go shopping |
| | wet, | | make a cake |
| | sunny, | | have a picnic |
| | hot, | we can´t | ride a mountain bike |
| | windy, | | play table tennis |
| | dry, | | watch TV |