26.1 Complete the table with words from A, B and C opposite.

Adjective	Noun
blind
conscious
deaf
dizzy
numb
light-headed unsteady

26.2 Make word combinations using a word from each box. Look at A, B and C opposite to help you.

double	acuity
epileptic	attack
prodromal	incontinence
syncopal	symptom
urinary	vision
visual	fit

26.3 A doctor is trying to determine the cause of loss of consciousness in a 52-year-old man. Complete the doctor's questions. Look at C opposite and at the table in 26.1 above to help you.

Did you lose (1) ..... suddenly or gradually?

Did you get a (2) ..... of the attack?

What were you doing before you (3) ..... out?

Were you worried or under any (4) ..... at the time?

Did you feel (5) ..... or (6) ..... before the attack?

Did you lose (7) ..... of your bladder?

Did your wife notice any (8) ..... movements while you were unconscious?

LIVEWORKSHEETS