Asking for advice
Giving advice

1. Watch the following video and decide if the sentences are true or false

a)	She would like to surprise her relative.	T	F
b)	Her boyfriend can't stand doing romantic things	T	F
c)	It's easy for the girl to find a present for her sweetheart.	T	F
d)	The boy offers the girl to choose the present according to her taste.	T	F
e)	He is sure that a present should be connected with the hobby.	T	F
f)	The girl refuses the idea of going to the baseball game together.	T	F
g)	She isn't aware of her boyfriend's favourite team.	T	F
h)	She'll ask her boyfriend directly about his favourite team.	T	F
i)	She has to surf the Net to check the timetable of games.	T	F
j)	He discourages the girl to choose the convenient day.	T	F

2. Tick the expressions that appear in the video

I advise you to +V	You had better +V
I recommend that you +V	You probably ought to +V
You should +V	Imperatives (Work! Try!)
I think you can +V	If I were you, I would +V

LIVEWORKSHEETS

What about + Ving?

You could try + Ving

My advice is to +V

Why don't you +V?

Do you think I should…?

What should I do?

What do you suggest?

What would you do in my situation?

It will be great if you…

Can you give me some advice?

What do you think?

3. Give advice to these people, please don't always use the same expression!

a) Abby: I don't want to be at home anymore, I argue with my parents all the time; but I can't afford paying my own place.

b) Mark: I just moved to Madrid, but I don't know anyone here.

c) Frank: I forgot my mum's birthday yesterday.

d) Daniela: I was looking after my friend's dog; we went to the park and now I can't find it!

e) Susan: I want to study medicine, but my parents don't support me.

LIVEWORKSHEETS