

COMPARATIVE AND SUPERLATIVE

Choose the correct option

Kuwait city is one of the (1) hot / hotter / hottest places in the world. In summer, it's (2) hot / hotter / hottest than the city of Timbuktu, which is next to the Sahara Desert! In the day, the shopping malls in Kuwait are one of (3) popular / more popular / the most popular places to visit, because the temperature in them is (4) nice / nicer / the nicest than outside. The hot air isn't (5) good / better / best for people. And of course, it's (6) bad / worse / the worst in the day than at night. In the evening, when the temperatures are (7) better / the better / the best, everyone goes outside. The streets are (8) crowded / more crowded / the most crowded at night than in the day. In my opinion, it's (9) easy / easier / the easiest to live in a cold country than a hot one. The weather in the UK is often cloudy and rainy, but I prefer wet and stormy climate to a hot and (10) dry / drier / the driest climate!