TINA'S BLOG

Tuesday, August 27th

Finally at home! I've just come back from my holiday in Greece. It was amazing! One day, we went to a souvenir shop and I met a girl called Kelly. We got on very well with me and we were both buying gifts for our family and friends. We started talking and we couldn't believe it! It turned out that we lived in the same city and we even went to the same school! We've never met before because she is three years older than me. We exchanged phone numbers and decided to meet next week in our local café. Isn't that unusual?

7.1. Where did Tina and Kelly first meet?

A. at a souvenir shop
B. in a café
C. at school

I loved listening to audiobooks as a child.
My favourite was Alice's Adventures in Wonderland.
So when I heard there was a musical based on the novel, I decided to see it. The show was great! There was an explosion of colours and wonderful choreography. There were actors playing the roles of the characters, creating a movie with lots of special effects. After the performance, everybody had smiles on their faces. It was fantastic!

THE SEARCH FOR PIRATE GOLD

In spring 1717, a famous pirate named Black Sam was sailing with his crew to Cape Cod. The ship was called the Whydah. It was carrying 180 bags of gold and silver. On April 26, Black Sam's ship was just 200 meters from the shore, where it was caught in a terrible storm. 8.1. ____ Black Sam and most of his men went down with it. People tried to find the treasure for many years, but without success. However, the story has lived on.

In the 1980s, Barry Clifford, a child from Cape Cod, learned about the Whydah from his uncle's stories. They were really exciting! 8.2. _____ That's why when he became an adult, he decided to start looking for the site of the sunken ship. Barry studied old maps and employed a group of divers. In May 1983 they started exploring. 8.3. _____ Barry was very unhappy about that. Then one day, one of the divers brought us an old silver coin. "I think we've found the pirate ship," shouted Barry, wishing his uncle were with him.

A. The team looked for the Whydah for two months, but all they found was some rubbish.
B. The boy often dreamt about finding the pirates' treasure.
C. The Whydah hit a rock and sank to the bottom of the ocean.
D. He knew it was the map of an island near Cape Cod.

When Ben come on stage the crowd erupted into cheers and applause. The singer-songwriter's latest album, Sunset Boulevard, reached number 1 in the charts of Spain and stocks added to this, as well as the use of videos on Big screen behind him. He played songs from his album as well as new tracks which not many people had heard before. The album tracks reach the audience ring strong, which is something I love about concerts – it is so different from listening to the album at home.

AN IMPORTANT PERSON

Steven's family moved in just a few houses down from us when he was 5 and I was almost ten, and I still remember how excited I felt when I found out that a new neighbor boy living on our street. The other children were all girls. We were good friends from the beginning because we were into the same things: computers and football, mostly. In fact, we had quite a few of the same hobbies for a while. I remember staying lots of models of aeroplanes one year. Another year we had a big fish tank. We used to spend hours just watching the fish swim around. We used to cross fishing now. We barely moved away a couple of years ago. We're still friends on Facebook but we don't really have much contact.

HOME CONTENTS

I'm studying in France and it is the first time in my life I have been separated from my family and away from my house for many months. It has been very rewarding to be independent. But I have also realised that there are many things from home which I miss. 12.1. _____ I know, it's bit strange, isn't it? The thing is, I find it very comforting to have a hot drink from my favourite mug. Another thing I miss is having books to read. Of course, there's plenty to read on the internet. 12.2. _____ Sadly, they are big and heavy, so I wouldn't fit any in my suitcase when I came to France. The final thing I miss is having carpets. 12.3. _____ As a result, my first days in my new place were stage stepping on cold floors. Fortunately, there is a saying: "you don't know what you've got until it's gone." From my experience, I'm forced to say it is true. Some of the smallest things in life are the things you miss the most. Being away from home has taught me to appreciate them!

SUMMER IN GREAT BRITAIN

A.

Britain is well known for its rainy climate. People joke that even in the summer time the country never gets any sun and that the skies stay grey even in July and August. Last summer though, it was so hot that people could hardly believe it. British people weren't used to such high temperatures, so every day on the news there were stories about people finding it hard to cope in such unusual weather conditions.

B.

When the sun comes out, British people tend to spend time in their gardens, if they have one. It's common to invite friends and neighbours round for a barbecue, where everyone sits outside and cooks food like grilled meat and salads. There's always a back-up plan in case of rain though and the meal sometimes has to be cooked in the kitchen and eaten indoors.

C.

People also spend a lot of time in parks during the summer, having picnics or playing Football or Frisbee. In every green area, there's always at least one ice cream van. Towns like Blackpool and Brighton are popular for their beaches. People go there to swim, sunbathe and eat fish and chips. However, the water can be quite cold so quite a lot of Brits prefer to go abroad for their summer holiday instead. Popular destinations include Spain, Germany and France: all countries that promise a bit of sunshine!

CHOOSING A MUSICAL INSTRUMENT

A lot of people would like to learn how to play a musical instrument but they are put off by a big problem: what instrument to play? Here are a few questions to think about before you decide.

Do you want to play with other people?
If you want to play with other people, choose an instrument which would be the most practical. If you want to play in an orchestra, then will always be a demand for brass players or drummers, and if you fancy being part of an orchestra, then bassoon is a great instrument to make sure you will always have a job.

Where are you going to practise?
If you live in a block of flats, practicing the drums, for example, will drive your neighbours crazy. Instead, you could practice playing the violin or the piano with a mute on the strings or even you like opinion of playing at night using headphones, while your housemates sleep in peace.

How much money can you spend?
A lot of instruments, for example guitars, can be bought in different price ranges. But this doesn't change the fact that many, such as the piano, are always pretty expensive. If you can't afford your chosen instrument, will you be able to borrow someone else's or hire one?

Still not sure?
Talk to people you know who already play musical instruments. They might even let you try theirs. It's also a good idea to find an experienced music teacher, who can give you some advice. Good luck with making your choice.
