ESCUELA NORMAL SUPERIOR DE BUCARAMAGA

PFC Programa de Formación Complementaria

TOPIC	Verbs Causatives	LEVEL	English 4	UNIT	7	SKILL	Grammar
Teachers	Marcela Amaya	Alejandra Gonzales			Yurley Suárez

GRAMMAR

1. Complete the text with the correct form of the verb in parentheses. Use the correct form of have as the main verb where necessary

Ellen looked great at the party. She was wearing a gorgeous yellow dress. She (make/it) _____by a famous fashion designer, and it looked perfect on her but she would have looked better if she had worn some earrings. I wonder when she's going to (pierced/her ears) _____

She (cut/her hair) _____by Jean Jacques at the salon. He (trim/it) _____about an inch. And she (do/her nails) _____there. They were bright red! Her hair was red, too. The problem is, she (dye/it) _____herself. Personally. I think she should have had jean Jacques do it. Luckily. Jean Jacques (do/her hair) _____very nicely. So, despite the badly-dyed red hair, she was definitely one of the most glamorous people that night.

2.Match the verbs of the column A with the column B which have the similar meaning.

COLUMN A	COLUMN B
Let	Share
Win	Perform
Cut	Colorant
Get	Procure
Do	Permit
Dye	Slash
Take	Victory

3. Drag each sentence into the correct category.

Active Sentences	Causative Sentences

Sentences:

- I cut my hair last week.
- She got her hair permed last week.
- Did you have your hair dyed?
- I'm going to shave my head.
- Elizabeth had her nails done.
- I'm going to dye my hair.
- She permed her hair.
- Elizabeth does her nails.
- He had his mustache trimmed
- Why did he trim his mustache?
- I'm going to have my head shaved.
- Did you get your hair cut?