Woman: Hello, everyone. Please listen carefully, because I'm going to tell you some important things about our school camping trip to the lake this weekend. First, we are going to meet at Kirby Bridge. Write this in your books, please. That's K-I-R-B-Y. You all know that place, don't you?

Yes, Miss.

Woman: Next, the time. Can we meet at half past eight?

Boy: Oh, that's very early!

Woman: No, it isn't. You start school at that time every day!

Boy: OK. What do we have to take with US, Miss?

Woman: Well, we'll only be there for two days, so don't bring a heavy suitcase! But you will need a small rucksack.

Boy: My brother's got one. I can use his. Shall we bring some food with US?

Woman: No, you don't need any because we can buy some at the shop in the village. But please bring a plastic plate with you.

Boy: OK. What about a torch, Miss?

Woman: Yes. That's very important because there aren't any lights in our tents! Now, what else? I know. The farmer is going to let US use the showers at the farm. Isn't that kind? So, you will all need to bring a towel with you.

Boy: Right. Is that everything?

Woman: Yes. So, see you all tomorrow.

Boy: OK. Bye, Miss.
