Future Meaning

1 Match the future sentences (1–8) with the uses (A–F).

1	I've eaten too many sweets. I'm going to be sick!		A action scheduled for a particular time B plan or intention C prediction based on evidence D definite plan or future arrangement E prediction based on opinion F spontaneous decision
2	Oh, no! There's no milk. Oh, well. I'll just go out and buy some.
3	What time does the train leave tomorrow?
4	The film is called The Wolf of Wall Street. I think you'll really like it.
5	I'm having lunch with my cousin tomorrow. It's her birthday.
6	I bought the new Artic Monkeys album. I'm going to listen to it later.
7	It's only 9 o'clock in the morning and it's already 30 degrees! It's going to be really hot today.
8	I haven't been feeling very well so I'm going to the doctor later.

2 Choose the correct options.

1 This is the last English class so I expect the teacher gives / will give us an exam.
2 OK, let's meet later. I 'm calling / 'll call you this afternoon.
3 Are you going out / Will you go out tonight?
4 What will you do / are you going to do after dinner tonight?
5 Hold on, the music's very loud and I can't hear you. I turn / 'll turn it down.
6 I think we 'll still be / 're still being together next year.
7 They've won the last seven matches. They 're not going to lose / 're not losing the next one.
8 The timetable shows that the next bus will leave / leaves in ten minutes.

LIVEWORKSHEETS