

The Sky Is Blue!

My uncle sends me a picture. It's a picture of a blue sky and white clouds.

"I am so happy to see the blue sky!" says my uncle.

I wonder why. "Isn't the sky always blue?"

"No," he says. "The sky in my city is often grey because there are too many cars."

That's why he is so excited!

Fruit or Vegetables?

Mac likes vegetables. He does not like fruit. At lunch, Mac eats peas, beans and carrots.

Kim is the opposite. She likes fruit, but not vegetables.

At lunch, their friend Rachel says, "There are places where people don't have food to eat, and they go hungry. "

Then she says, "If you think about that, you see all food is good!"

Report Card

Pat stopped working and came out of his office. He wanted to see what others were doing in the next room.

He told them that his 95-year-old mother still kept his kindergarten report card.

"What did the report card say?" asked one of his friends.

"Stop visiting your neighbours!" said Pat.
