

EASTER SEASON-THE THREE GREAT FEASTS

Instruction:

Read each assigned Scripture Passage and answer the questions which follow by clicking the multiple choice with the most correct response.

1st Great Feast – Matthew 28: 1-10

1. Based on Matthew 28: 1-10, what is the First Great Feast of the Easter Season?
a) Pentecost b) The Ascension of Jesus c) The Resurrection of Jesus
2. According to the Scriptures, on the third day of Jesus' death, two women went to His tomb. One woman is referred to as "The Other Mary." What is the name of the other woman who visited Jesus's tomb?
a) Mary the Mother of God b) Mary Magdalene c) Mary of Bethany
3. Who informed the women that visited Jesus' tomb that Jesus was not in His Tomb?
a) An Angel b) A Guard c) An Ombudsman
4. Why wasn't Jesus in His Tomb?
a) Because He had died b) Because He was out teaching c) Because He was risen
5. What were the women told to do after they were informed that Jesus was not in His Tomb?
a) Tell the disciples b) Tell the guards c) Tell the Chief Priest

2nd Great Feast – Acts 1: 6-12

6. According to Acts 1: 6-12, what is the Second Great Feast of the Easter Season?
a) Pentecost b) The Ascension of Jesus c) The Resurrection of Jesus
7. In this Second Great Feast, what happened to Jesus?
a) He came to Earth b) He went up to Heaven c) He rose from the dead
8. Where did the Second Great Feast take place?
a) Mount Olivet b) Mount Saini c) Mount Olives

9. What happened as the disciples stared at the sky as Jesus was going?

- a) Two men in white appeared b) Two men worshipped Jesus c) Two men died

10. Since Jesus was no longer with His disciples, which Person of the Blessed Trinity was promised as His replacement on Earth?

- a) God the Father b) God the Son c) God the Holy Spirit

3rd Great Feast – Acts 2: 1-13

11. According to Acts 2: 1-13, what is the Third Great Feast of the Easter Season?

- a) Pentecost b) The Ascension of Jesus c) The Resurrection of Jesus

12. The Third Great Feast of the Easter Season is best described as, "The coming of _____."

- a) The Plagues b) The Lord Jesus Christ c) The Holy Spirit

13. In the Scriptures, The Third Person of The Blessed Trinity had two symbols. One symbol was the wind. What was the other symbol?

- a) Tongues of Fire b) Rushing Wind c) Clanging Cymbals

14. The Third Great Feast of the Easter Season is important because it represents, "The birth of the _____ in Christianity."

- a) Messiah b) Church c) Commandments

15. At the Third Great Feast of Easter, all of Jesus' disciples were each speaking different languages, which caused some people to criticize them by saying, "They were filled with new wine," meaning they were drunk. If the disciples were not filled with new wine—were not drunk, with what were they filled?

- A) Hope b) Holy Spirit c) Faith

