Name:

Instructions: For each sentence, identify the TENSE (present, past, or future) and ASPECT (simple, continuous, or perfect). Then, identify the DIRECT OBJECT of the sentence. Finally, use the direct object as the new subject and rewrite the sentence using passive voice.

Example: Everyone has bought a plastic water bottle at some point.

Tense & Aspect: present perfect Direct Object: a plastic water bottle

Passive Sentence: A plastic water bottle has been bought by everyone at some point.

subject passive BE agent prep. phrase

1. People work on the phones in Asia.

   Tense & Aspect: Direct Object:

   Passive Sentence:

2. The government paid for the water sanitation plant with tax money.

   Tense & Aspect: Direct Object:

   Passive Sentence:

3. Does the price include fair pay for the workers?

   Tense & Aspect: Direct Object:

   Passive Sentence:

4. Nestle is pumping more water than is sustainable.

   Tense & Aspect: Direct Object:

   Passive Sentence:

5. Somebody was polluting the river.

   Tense & Aspect: Direct Object:

   Passive Sentence:

Name:

6. They had completed the new supply of tennis shoes.

   Tense & Aspect: Direct Object:

   Passive Sentence:

7. For many years, people have frequently delivered new jeans to stores.

   Tense & Aspect: Direct Object:

   Passive Sentence:

8. Only 73% of Colombians will receive clean tap water this year.

   Tense & Aspect: Direct Object:

   Passive Sentence: