Strange but true

When President Lincoln was ready to sign the Emancipation Proclamation, his hands _____ because he was very nervous. SHAKE

So he _____ the pen down. He decided to wait to sign the document until he could do this with a steady hand.	PUT

He was afraid that his critics would accuse _____ of hesitating if they saw a shaky signature.	HE

The camera

The camera is a miraculous invention. Some people treat it as a time machine. It helps people capture any moment in history and in the present. Alexander Walcott _____ to have invented it.

CONSIDER

The _____ camera appeared in 1840.	ONE

The improvement in the camera technology has helped bring motion pictures. Today, we enjoy our __ _____ images and get time to interact with our own past. GOOD

It _____ with us forever in our photos and home videos. STAY

Part 2

What do you know about Australia?

Here are some interesting facts about Australia. Over 200 different languages and dialects _____ in Australia including 45 indigenous languages.	SPEAK

Australia has the world's _____ proportion of migrant settlers in a developed nation with over 25% of Australians born in another country.	HIGH

The _____ Australian Friendly Society with the motto of "Advance Australia" was formed in Victoria in 1871.	ONE

The cat, the rooster, and the young mouse

A very young mouse made his first trip out of the hole and into the world. He returned to tell his mother of the wonderful creatures he _____.	SEE

"Oh, Mother," said the mouse, "I met some curious animals. There was one beautiful animal with fluffy fur, a long winding tail and a tender voice. I met another animal, a terrible looking monster. He had raw meat on his head and on his chin that wiggled and shook as he walked. He gave such a powerful and frightening cry, that I ran away in fear, without _____ to the kind beautiful animal."	TALK

Mother Mouse smiled, "My dear, that horrible creature was a harmless bird, but that beautiful animal with the fluffy fur was a cat who eats _____.	MOUSE

You are lucky she _____ you for dinner."	NOT HAVE

Part 3

Pets of my childhood

My pet history began when I was five. One summer day, while my mother _____ clothes with the window open, a nice canary flew in. We called it Chirpy and it became our first pet.	IRON

Soon, while Chirpy was still alive, my parents bought a pair of _____, whom we named Timmy and Tina.	MOUSE

Unfortunately, Timmy and Tina lived only two years, and after they died we _____ any more pets.	NOT GET

Bears

There are many kinds of bears. The polar bear lives mostly in the Arctic North, often on drifting masses of floating sea ice _____ 'floes'.	CALL

Brown bears, once widespread in Europe and Asia, are now rare. The American black bear is _____ than the brown bears.	SMALL

The spectacled bear, which gets its name from the light-coloured rings around its eyes, is the only bear of the Southern Hemisphere. It _____ in the Andes Mountains.	FIND

He was too clever

Some people want to show how clever they are and that may lead to trouble. Once a professor _____ by boat. On his way he asked the sailor: "Do you know biology, ecology, zoology, geography?"	TRAVEL

The sailor said no to all his questions. The professor said: "What on Earth do you know? You _____ of illiteracy."	DIE

After a while, the boat started _____ . The sailor asked the professor: "Do you know swiminology and escapology from sharkology?" The professor said no. The sailor said, "Well, sharkology and crocodilogy will eat your headology and bodyology and you will dielogy because of your mouthology."	SINK