

MONTEVIDEO

I live in Montevideo which is the capital of Uruguay. Montevideo is on the Rio de la Plata, opposite Buenos Aires on the other side of the river. It is an attractive city with just over one and a quarter million people. It's a warm and sunny place in the summer and very mild in the winter.

I love Montevideo. The people are friendly. The food is cheap and tasty. Parrillada, a beef dish, and chivito, a kind of steak sandwich, are especially delicious. There are lots of great restaurants in Montevideo. If you like sweet things you will love "Martin Fierro," this is a local dessert made of cheese and jam, it tastes fantastic! There are lots of things to do and places to go. You can visit Ciudad Vieja, the old city, close to the harbour, and the Plaza Independencia, a grand square which is home to the Palacio Salvo, the tallest building in Montevideo. You can really have fun and excitement during Carnival which takes place in February and March. It's the most exciting time of year to visit Montevideo.
