Simple Past Tense (regular & irregular verbs)

Mrs Sheridan has always dreamed of becoming an actress. One day she _____ (meet) a very handsome man. He _____ (turn out) to be a farmer. At first, she _____ (think) that it _____ (be) good because she _____ (like) the idea of living in the country. They_____ (get married) and they _____ (live) happily for some time. She _____ (continue) her studies and he _____ (take care) of his farm. Then, things _____ (complicate) a little bit. When she _____ (graduate) from the University she _____ (not, can) find a job. She _____ (not, want) to sit at home and do nothing so she _____ (decide) to help her husband on the farm. He _____ (know) that she _____ (be) no good but he _____ (not, want) to argue with her and he _____ (let) her do some things. She _____ (be) very clumsy. One day she _____ (break) twenty eggs. She _____ (not, tell) him about it because she_____ (be sure) he would be furious. Another day, she accidentally _____ (kill) two small ducklings. There _____ (be) many instances of her clumsiness. Finally, he _____ (notice) that some animals or objects _____ (be) missing. He _____ (call) her and _____ (ask) if she _____ (happen to know) where they _____ (be). She _____ (not, can) lie anymore. She _____ (confess) that it _____ (be) her fault. She _____ (explain) why some things _____ (disappear). He _____ (not, shout) at her. He _____ (tell) her not to worry. She _____ (promise) to be more careful. Soon, she _____ (get) a job in a theatre and she _____ (be) the happiest person in the world.

