Phrasal Verbs MAKE

Make up
Invent, lie about something Mary made up a story about why she was late.

Make out
Decipher
Anybody can't make out her handwriting.

Make up for Compensate for something
I don't eat dinner but I make up for it at breakfast.

Make of Understand, find a reason
I don't know what to make of his behaviour.

Make over
Do again
The teacher made him do his homework over.

Make off
Hurry away, escape
The thieves made off before the police arrived.

Make up
Forgive each other
Alex and Mary angry yesterday, but they made up this morning.

Make for Move towards
He already made for home when I arrived.

www.englishstudyhere.com

Phrasal Verbs with DO

Do down criticize someone or something My son, stop doing yourself down.

Do over
Beat up
Her shop was done over by a Street gang.

Do up
Fasten, close
Do your coat up before you go outside.

Do away with Abolish
It's time to do away with the death penalty.

Do over
Repeat
My friend made many mistakes, so I want to do the report over.

Do in Kill someone
He threatened to do my father in if he didn't pay up by Saturday.

grammarsimple.com

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Phrasal Verbs With Do And Make

Fill in the blanks.

1. We cannot ..... without food or water.

do with

Either could be used here

2. Child marriage is a bad custom and should be ……. with.

done off

done away

done up

3. His elder brother did him …… his rightful inheritance.

out

of

out of

4. We are …….. the kitchen on the weekend.

making up

doing up

doing out

5. As soon as the thief saw the dog rushing towards him, he …… the gate.

made out

made for

made off

6. What do you make …….. her new boyfriend?

out

of

off

LIVEWORKSHEETS

up

7. He made …….. as soon as he heard that his mother had fallen ill.

up

off

out

8. The superb food at the restaurant made …… the bad service.

out for

for up for

9. The boy made …….. to his mother until she allowed him to go to the movies.

up

out

off

10. The human body is …… of the five elements.

made out

made up

made off

LIVEWORKSHEETS