Fish and chips

People usually order this meal from a restaurant. But my dad makes the best fish and chips in the world! There's always some fish in the fridge at my house because he cooks fish and chips for the whole family every Friday.

Chicken and rice

Is there any chicken on the menu at my house? No, there isn't. But there is some chicken and some rice at my aunt's house. She cooks this meal for me when I visit her. There's always a lot of food so she gives me some to take home!
