Millie Bobby Brown is best known for her role in Netflix's science-fiction horror show Stranger Things.

Things. However, Brown has made plenty of other achievements as well. At just 17 years old, she has already starred in popular movies and TV shows, modeled for Calvin Klein, and earned a spot on Time Magazine's list of the 100 most influential people. It all started when her family moved from the UK to Florida, USA. She was just eight years old at the time. She was able to learn a perfect American accent by watching TV and copying what she heard, despite being deaf in one ear. Her first on-screen acting role came in 2013, when she appeared in the fantasy series Once Upon a Time in Wonderland. However, her big break came when she played Eleven in season one of Stranger Things. Her part only included 250 words of dialogue, but she turned it into an award-winning performance.
