Reading

Read the article about a neighbourhood and match the headings (1-8) to the paragraphs (A-G).
One heading does not match.

1. GETTING THERE
2. UNIQUE SHOPPING
3. SOHO'S HISTORY
4. SEE A SHOW
5. SPECIAL EVENTS
6. SOME FAMOUS SPOTS
7. A LITTLE BIT OF EVERYTHING
8. A TASTY EXPERIENCE

A Guide to London's Most Entertaining Neighbourhood.

A. Soho is a colourful neighbourhood in central London. It has something for everyone, from trendy restaurants and cafes to unusual shops and theatres. Soho promises visitors a variety of things to see and do. It's a truly unique experience.

B. A walk around Soho offers the chance to see some well-known streets and buildings. Stroll down Carnaby Street or check out the grand Palace Theatre from the 1880s. Sit for a moment in Soho Square to enjoy a little green space and look out for famous faces.

C. For those looking for unusual things to buy, Soho's shops sell almost everything. Old records, antique books and vintage clothing are just a few of the rare treasures to buy in the streets and markets of Soho.

D. Londoners and tourists from around the world come to Soho for its variety of theatres. There are many plays and musicals to see in different venues in this arty neighbourhood. For more information on performances, see the Time Out London Magazine.

E. Soho is truly an international spot. Italians, Greeks, Asians and many others come together in the streets of Soho. Of course, with all these nationalities living in one neighbourhood, there is a wide variety of food choices. Great ethnic cuisine from just about everywhere is available in Soho. So, get ready for a delicious treat.

F. The streets are always busy in Soho. People there like to go out and have a great time. There is no better way to have fun and really live the Soho experience, than to attend one of the many festivals that take place throughout the year. Festivals celebrating music, the arts, films and food guarantee a fun time in this lively neighbourhood.

G. The neighbourhood of Soho covers 2.6 square kilometres and is in the shape of a square. There are four underground Tube stations that give access to Soho; one in each corner of the square. Also, various London bus routes run through Soho. However, it's not a good idea to drive to Soho, as traffic can be a problem and there is little parking available.

A	B	C	D	E	F	G