Why People Like To Travel

Put your reasons for travelling in order, from the most popular to the least popular.

visiting family | wanderlust | Spending time with friends

adventure | challenge | escaping a colder climate

experiencing a different culture | sightseeing | learning

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.

Travel Words – Unscramble the words and fill your answers in the gaps provided.

1. In order to travel to another country you must ensure that your visa and other (socduemtn) are up to date.
2. Then you have to book your (gfilht) .
3. Some people prefer to have an (eails) seat, while other prefer to sit by the window.
4. Some people travel (usinbses) (slacs) , but I can't afford that, so I usually have to travel (yceonom) .
5. In order to get on the plane, you must have your (gobanidr) (saps) ready.
6. During (afotekf) and (naldgin) all passengers must have their seats in the up right position.
7. A (cpkagea) (orut) is a holiday which has been organised by a travel company.
8. If you have a problem during the flight, ring the bell for the flight (ttandatne) .

An idiom is a group of words which have been put together in a sentence which are not meant to be taken literally.

E.g. The interview which he gave on television was an absolute train wreck. This does not mean that a train literally crashed. It means that the interview was a total disaster.

Travel idioms and expressions

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.

fall asleep at the wheel

fly by the seat of my pants

hit the road

itchy feet

throw someone under the bus

In the same boat

ships that pass in the night

go off the rails

desert a sinking ship

Connect the idiom to the correct meaning

hit the road	A person who has a strong desire to travel in the same boat	Cause problems by neglecting to do one's duty
train wreck	To start to behave in a wild and uncontrollable way
itchy feet	Having the same problems as someone else
ships that pass in the night	A total disaster
go off the rails	Betrayal by telling lies about what someone has done fall asleep at the wheel	Family members who see very little of each other threw me under the bus	Set off somewhere

Fill in the missing idioms

1. I don't know what has happened to Paul. He started to _____ when he became a teenager.
2. Mary never puts much thought into anything. She _____ most of the time.
3. Our neighbours are _____ as us. They can't afford a holiday this year either!
4. We had better _____ if we want to get there on time!
5. We stopped being friends when he _____ by telling my boss lies about me.
6. Everytime I look at a travel magazine, it gives me _____ .
7. I don't know how their marriage survives! They live their lives like _____
8. I don't want to be the one to _____ , but I have to think of my future.
9. You can't afford to _____ like this! There are too many people depending on you.
10. Nancy should never have made that speech. It was a total _____

itchy feet | in the same boat | fall asleep at the wheel | hit the road

ships that pass in the night | go off the rails | flies by the seat of her pants

threw me under the bus | desert the sinking ship | train wreck