Conditional Sentences

There are seven mistakes with tenses in this story, they are marked in yellow. Correct the mistakes and fill the gaps with if or unless.

Yesterday was a very bad day. (O) If hadn't been ~~wasn't~~ raining, perhaps it wouldn't have been so tiring. The problem is, I never drive to school (1) ..... it's raining. But it was raining cats and dogs and I needed to get to an important class, so I took the car. It broke down on the way. (2) ..... I had it serviced regularly, I know it won't _____be so unreliable, but garages charge so much these days that I don't bother.

I decided to call the breakdown company on my mobile phone. Well, I would have done that (3) ..... my mobile hasn't _____run out of battery! Never mind, I thought, (4) ..... I'll find _____a public phone, I'll be able to call from there (5) ..... it's out of order! It was, so I can't _____! By this time, I was in a panic. What will _____my teacher say (6) ..... didn't get to the class? (7) ..... students don't arrive on time, he will get_____really angry with them. Luckily, a taxi pulled up. 'A la ENOI,' I shouted, 'and (8)..... you will do _____the journey in under ten minutes, I'll pay you double!' 'Forget it,' said the driver. 'The Puente de Guadalupe is gridlocked. You'd never get there in ten minutes (9) ..... you went by helicopter.' So I ended up late for the class and the teacher was not happy.