Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary

Let's talk about personality!

Each sentence describes a personality type. Match the word that describes that personality type.

A person who likes to give or share things with others.	Frank
Someone who always tells the truth.	Creative
A person who is quick at learning new things.	Cultured
Someone who is always on time.	Punctual
A person who can't keep a secret.	Inconsiderate
Someone who does not think about other peoples' feelings.	Bigmouth
A person who speaks in a very direct and honest way.	Ambitious
Someone who is educated or has good manners.	Clever
A person who comes up with new and original ideas.	Generous
Someonewho has a strong desire to succeed.	Honest

Unit 1: Me, Myself and I

In English there are different idioms to describe people. Read the following ones and try to complete the sentences.

Armchair critic: Is a person who makes comments and criticisms about something but he/she doesn't do anything to fix the problem.

Couch potato: Is a lazy person who spends a lot of time watching TV, playing videogames or lying on the sofa.

Cheapskate: Is a person who hates spending a lot of money on buying/doing something.

Worrywart: Is a person who is always worried about everything.

Busybody: Is a person that constantly wants to know about other people's live.

Behind the times: Is a person who has not adopted certain modern customs, behaviours, etc.

1.- I hate when we have lunch with my family because my aunt is always asking me questions about my love life. She is a _____.

2.- Don't be an _____! You are always complaining. If you don't like this, why don't you organize campaigns against pollution?

3.- Today is David's mum birthday. He has only spent 5€ for her present. I think he is a _____.

4.- Please, stop being a _____! Turn off the TV and tidy up your bedroom.

5.- My parents don't have an e-mail address neither Internet at home. They are a little _____.

6.- My mum is such a _____. If I don't call her every day, she starts imagining that something bad has happened to me.