GIVING ADVICE

Activity 1: LISTEN AND COMPLETE

Alex: Can I ask your advice about something?

Lewis: Of course. What's the problem?

Alex: Well, I want to get _____. But I think _____ for my studies.

Lewis: If I were you, _____. Then you'd have your job on _____ and _____, and school work _____.

Alex: That's a good idea!

Activity 2: COMPLETE THE DIALOGUE USING THE WORDS BELOW.

DRAG AND DROP

about something | a good idea | if I went | If I were you

What's the problem | wouldn't have

Freya: Can I ask your advice _____*?*

Marta: Of course. _____*?*

Freya: I want to buy a surfboard, but my parents don't want me to have one.

Marta: Why not?

Freya: *They think that*_____ surfing on the weekend, I _____ time for my studies.

Marta: Well, your studies are important. _____*, I'd study for my exams now, and then try to get a surfboard during the summer vacations.*

Freya: That's _____*. Thanks.*

Activity 3: WRITE YOUR OWN DIALOGUE USING THE IDEAS BELOW.

You want to…	Your parents think…
play the guitar in a rock band	you would be too tired for school
get a job in a café	you wouldn't have time for your studies
volunteer to help homeless people	the work would make you feel upset
