IF CLAUSE 1ST TYPE

A- REWRITE THESE SENTENCES

1. Carol may save money. She can buy a bike then.
2. Ted may work tonight. We can't go to the theatre then.
3. Maybe Sally will get the job. She will take us to a restaurant then.
4. Perhaps James will play in the match. He can score a goal then.
5. Mike may be free tonight. We can visit my parents then.
6. Simon may get a high mark in the next exam. His mother will take him to the zoo then.
7. Maybe Sharon will give a party next weekend. I will help her then.
8. Perhaps Jason will pass his exam. His mother will buy him a bike.
9. Kevin may finish his homework early. He may o out with his friends then.
10. Perhaps Fred will sleep late tonight. He can't wake up early tomorrow then.
11. William may not work at the weekend. He may go to the seaside then.
12. Perhaps Tim will practise hard. He may be the champion in the race then.

B- FILL IN THE BLANKS

1. If Ted earns a lot of money, he ..... (move) to a bigger house.
2. Bill will invite Carol to his party if she ..... (answer) the phone.
3. Jack ..... (help) his father if he ..... (decide/paint) the garden gate.
4. David ..... (buy) some bread if he ..... (go) to the baker's.
5. If Gerry ..... (want/invite) his friends, I ..... (prepare) some food for them.
6. Sally ..... (go) out tonight if she ..... (have) much homework.
7. ..... (tell) the waitress if your soup ..... (be) cold.
8. My parents ..... (be pleased) if I ..... (get) 5 in this exam.
9. I ..... (give) you his address if you ..... (give) me 2 minutes.
10. If you .....(stop) eating so much bread,you ..... (get) fatter.
11. ..... (wear) tight clothes if you ..... (are) slim.

12. Kelly ..... (lose) weight if she ..... (eat) less.
13. If Sally ..... (get) the job,he ..... (take) me to a restaurant tonight.
14. Jim ..... (play) basketball tomorrow if he is free.
15. If my parents ..... (let) me give a party, I ..... (call) you tomorrow.