Rachel and Brian are talking about music. Let's listen:

What singers/bands are they talking about?

Cover the conversation and choose the correct object pronoun.

R. Listen to this. What do you think of it?

B. I hate ____. It's awful. Who is it?

R. Enrique Iglesias. I love ____. He's great.

B. You love ____ because he's cute.

R. What about this song?

B. It's pretty good. Who is it?

R. Lady Gaga.

B. Oh! I can't stand _____. She always wears those terrible clothes.

R.Ok, who do you like? Tell ____.

B. I really like Radiohead. They're fantastic. Do you like ____?

R. Um, they're not bad.

B. My brother and I have tickets to their concert next week. Come with ____ !

R. No, thanks. They're OK, but I don't really want to go.

Now, match the highlighted words with the correct definitions.

awful	very pretty or attractive.
cute	don't like someone or something at all.
can't stand	very bad, not enjoyable.

Look at the highlighted object pronouns. Who do they refer to?

R. "I love him. He's grate" refers to _____

B. "I can't stand her" refers to _____

B. "They're fantastic. Do you like them" refers to _____

B. "Come with us" refers to _____

Let's complete the chart.

I	ME
YOU	YOU
HE	_____
SHE	_____
IT	IT
WE	US
THEY	_____