

Name: _____

The people below in 1-5 all want to buy a book.

Look at the descriptions of eight books. (A-H)

Decide which book would be most suitable for each person.

1) Choose your answer ...

James is looking for a book for his granddaughter's fourth birthday present. Ideally, it should be about animals or elves and be a story he can read to her many times.

2) Choose your answer ...

Susan is twenty-one and works for a multinational company. She likes romantic novels very much, especially if they contain descriptions of fashionable clothes, magnificent houses and parties.

3) Choose your answer ...

Andre is from Paris and he travels across England on business very often. He would like a book that offers accurate information as he sometimes has time for a little sightseeing between business meetings.

4) Choose your answer ...

Tina is a chemistry student but she would like to read science fiction in her free time. She wants to buy a well-written book with a surprise at the end.

5) Choose your answer ...

Peter wants to buy a book as a present for his friend Robin. Robin is keen on fishing and likes spending time in nature.

A) Henry Jowett

The Portrait of a Woman

The charming Evelyn Blanchet was a French woman who came to England in the eighteenth century and won the hearts of young men wherever she appeared. This enjoyable romance shows us the elegant evening dresses, the wonderful rooms and Evelyn's gleaming eyes in an imaginary world full of gardens and palaces.

B) Patience Jones

The English Corner

In a quiet English village by the sea, a young French widow gets a second chance at love. Annabel Ginger hasn't been back to the village of Abberton since she buried her husband two years ago. Now she's returning with her 4-year-old daughter, Alice.

C) Robin Greene

Migration

In the dark future of Jupiter XI, more than 90 per cent of the world's population have died. Killed by themselves and others who were listening to voices steering their dreadful actions. Those who survived live in a very hostile environment. Totally unexpected ending with so many twists and turns.

D) Ann Kaufman

Baby Dance

This fabulous board book follows five American puppies (including a rather cheeky yorkie) as they play and dance the day away. Using delightful rhyme and simple language, American author Ann Kaufman has created a fun, rhythmical story that is a joy to read and alluring to little ears.

E) Bruce Nolan

Landia

Landia is a medieval world filled with pirates and warriors, adventures and battles, and a group of boys trying to find their place in the world. The story focuses on a bunch of naughty boys who, as part of their coming of age, must go through six months of tough physical training on land and sea to become warriors.

F) Automobile Association

Walks and Tours in United Kingdom

A free guide (French edition) with practical tips and advice to help you get the most out of your trip to United Kingdom. It includes detailed information on history, museums, galleries, churches as well as some useful information about accommodation. There are suggested tour routes, maps and directions.

G) Izaak Watson

The Perfect Storm

The "Silver Guide" series from St. George's Press has been around since the late 60's and is known for its comprehensive coverage on a wide range of nature topics. "The Perfect Storm" is no exception. The book is widely considered to be one of the leading guidebooks for the beginner angler.

H) Doris McCartney

The Princess

Open the book and you won't be disappointed, for what follows is a fascinating adventure with fantastical places and amazing creatures, all to be found just on the verge of reality, if only you could squeeze through the lavender hedge at the bottom of the garden to find it.