A. Put the clothes shop dialogue between a salesperson and a customer in the correct order.

a. ..... As you can see, we have some lovely dress shirts on sale.

b. ..... Hello. Are you looking for something in particular?

c. ..... Here's a long-sleeved medium white shirt, and it's machine washable. Would you like to try it on?

d. ..... I don't have a preference, but it must look business-like. And it must go with gray trousers.

e. ..... Medium. I need a long-sleeved shirt.

f. ..... I'll check the labels for you. What size do you wear?

g. ..... It fits perfectly! I'll take it. Thank you for your help.

h. ..... The changing rooms are over there.

i. ..... The long-sleeved shirts are on this rack. Would you prefer a solid colour or a patterned shirt?

j. ..... Yes, I am. I'm looking for a dress shirt.

k. ..... Yes, please. Where are the changing rooms?

l. ..... Yes, they are very nice shirts. I want one that is machine washable.

B. Match the words and phrases in the first column with definitions in the second column.

1. dress shirt	(a) to be the right shape or size
2. go with	(b) with sleeves from the shoulder to the wrist
3. in particular	(c) only one colour
4. label	(d) look attractive in combination
5. long-sleeved	(e) a frame to display clothes in a shop
6. machine washable	(f) a shirt to wear for business or formal occasions
7. fit	(g) can be washed in a washing machine
8. preference	(h) specifically; one thing and not in general
9. rack	(i) something a person likes more than something else
10. solid	(j) a small piece of cloth on clothing with information about it