OPEN CLOZE. FCE

In Brazil we take beach volleyball seriously. I am going to tell you _____ a tournament that took place last Summer. It was a beautiful sunny day and _____ of families and friends turned _____ . There was a great atmosphere with picnics and barbecues. Teams of two girls from up and _____ the coast joined in. At first, groups of teams played a set _____ each other to see who _____ go through to the last sixteen. This first part of the competition was just fun but the knock-out part was _____ serious. By the time we got to the semi-finals we realised we _____ a chance of winning. We won _____ first set easily but lost the second. In the final one the others got a big lead and needed one _____ point. Their Captain was _____ tense she lost control of a smash and the ball was just out. She got really angry with the umpire! _____ we fought _____ to get level and everyone was shouting encouragement. The others just gave up and we got the points we needed. We _____ sorry, but not too sorry, for the other girls, after _____ there's only one winner! Also, we were _____ exhausted to feel very much else.
