

Choose the correct answer

1 A vest in American English is the same as in British (shirt — T-shirt — waist coat)

2 There are in words in spellings between British and American English.

(differences — similes — exactness)

3 A is a person who repairs cars.

(photographer nurse — mechanic)

4 A is someone whose job is to cook food in restaurants and hotels.

(Chef — nurse — doctor)

5 A is someone who can fly a plane.

(nurse — pilot — mechanic)

6 A helps doctors with their work.

(mechanic — chef — nurse)

7 A is a person who takes photos of people.

(chef — photographer — scientist)

8 A is a person who works at a laboratory.

(scientist — chef — nurse)

9 I know the who took part in the last film.

(director — actor — scientist)

10 This sport is called football in the UK and in the US.

(soccer — rugby — tennis)

11 It's against law to throw in the streets in the US.

(rubbish—dirty--trash)

12 When I up, I want to be an engineer.

(grow — build — age)

13 What are the of your job?

(profession — activities — aspects
(responsibilities)

14 Truck is another word for

(lorry car bicycle)

15 A : I'm so busy. B : Don't worry .help you.

(I — I'll — I don't — I won't)

16-I hope we see an old play in concert.

(would — will — should — might)

17-They the USA for three weeks this summer.

(will go to — go to — going to)

18-I don't think there—be cars in the future.

(should — will — going to — must)

19I think wethe match.

(would see — will see — should see — must see)

20-I want to visit Paris next year, so I— French next term.

(would learn — 'II learn — could learn — might learn)

21-There aren't any good films on TV tonight, so I think I —— watch the football.

(would — am going to — must will)

22-My computer's old, so my dad—buy me a new one for my birthday.

(is going to — will — won't — could)

23-I haven't spoken to John for a long time. I think I ——phone him now.

(am going to — will — won't — might not)

24-I don't want to do this homework now. I think I ——do it tomorrow instead.

(will — am going to — going to — might)

25 My father is almost sixty. He —— next month.

(is retiring — will retire — can retire — must retire)

26-The weather forecast says it—— hot tomorrow.

(should be — is being — will be — must be)

27 Do you think it

(is raining — will rain — is going to rain — must rain)