Story Time

Scary Stories

One Saturday evening two young brothers (be) _____ at home alone. Their parents were visiting some neighbours.

The boys (decide) _____ to play hide and seek. The older boy, Peter, turned his head to the wall and began to count. He (hear) _____ his brother's feet walking to his hiding place.

"Ready or not I'm coming" said Peter and he (start) _____ to look for his brother. He (look) _____ in all the usual places, behind the sofa, in the bathroom, behind the shower curtain, behind the curtains in every room and under all the beds, but he couldn't find him. The apartment (be) _____ totally silent.

Then Peter heard a noise in the wardrobe. He (go) _____ there, opened the door and said: "Come out, I've found you!" but nothing happened. There was no answer and his brother (not/ come) _____ out. Peter started to move the clothes in the wardrobe to find his brother when a cold small hand grabbed his hand and tried to pull him inside the wardrobe. While he was trying to get free from the hand, he heard his brother's voice behind him: "You didn't find me!!" . Peter screamed desperately. Whose was that hand? His little brother helped him to free from the icy hand, they (close) _____ the wardrobe door with a bang and ran away from the bedroom…

wardrobe

curtains