Amaro

James

Seiji

Tamara

1. Who might be an orchestra conductor?	Amaro	Seiji	James	Tamara
2. Who might be a zoo keeper?	Amaro	Seiji	James	Tamara
3. Who might be a chemist?	Amaro	Seiji	James	Tamara
4. Who might be an astronaut?	Amaro	Seiji	James	Tamara

Focus on Grammar. May/Might

We use might to suggest the possibility of something.
Example: She's walking into our classroom. She might be our new English teacher.
We use may to ask for permission.
Example: May I see your notebook?

1. _____ I stay here tonight?
2. He looks like you. He _____ be your brother.
3. It _____ be cold there. She's wearing a coat.
4. _____ we enter this room?
5. You _____ come in if you want to.
6. I don't understand him. He _____ be Chinese.

VOCABULARY.

search

baton

feed

perform

Read & Complete

1. You shouldn't _____ candy to your dog.
2. An orchestra conductor uses a _____.
3. You can find out a lot about this artist. Just _____ the Internet.
4. The band will _____ tomorrow night.

Match the duties to the professions.

1. She might be a tailor because she...
2. He might be a carpenter because he...
3. He might be a dock worker because he...

- [ ] helps in hospitals.
- [ ] sews clothes.
- [ ] cleans.
- [ ] loads and unloads ships.
- [ ] makes things out of wood.
- [ ] looks after animals.

What tools do they use for their work? Match the tools with the professions.

1. a car mechanic
2. a gardener
3. an electrician
4. a tailor
5. a hairdresser

a screwdriver

a wrench

a sewing machine

a hairdryer

a spade / shovel

_____ _____ _____ _____ _____

Write questions using May I...?

1. You're a gardener. May I borrow your _____?
2. You're a hairdresser. _____?
3. You're a car mechanic. _____?
4. You're an electrician. _____?
5. You're a tailor. _____?

Complete the sentences with the correct tools.

1. I need to plant a tree.
   I need a _____.
2. She needs to sew a shirt.
   She needs a _____.
3. We need to fix this lamp.
   We need a _____.
4. He needs to repair his car.
   He needs a _____.
5. I need to dry my hair.
   I need a _____.
6. She needs to paint her room.
   She needs a _____.