A. Click here and solve the crossword. Click on each number and fill with the letters on the bottom.

B. Select the correct answer.

1. a. David is doing a story about a new garden that is being developed.
   b. David is doing a story about a garden that is in danger.

2. a. The garden was created because the parks in the area were all dirty and dangerous.
   b. The garden was created because there were no other parks or gardens in the area.

3. a. The people love the garden and the neighborhood is safer.
   b. The people love the garden, but the neighborhood is more expensive.

4. a. The city owns the land and plans to build on it.
   b. A construction company wants to buy the land and build on it.

5. a. If the two sides cannot reach and agreement, the land will be sold.
   b. If the two sides cannot reach and agreement, they may go to court.

6. a. David and his friends think that the garden should be saved.
   b. David and his friend can't agree on what should happen.

C. Match the questions and the responses.

1. What was the neighborhood like when you moved here?____
2. Were there any parks or gardens in the area?____
3. What did this space look like before?____
4. So, what did you do to fix it up?____
5. How do the people in the neighborhood like the garden?____
6. Your company wants to destroy the Berry Street Garden and build a parking lot on it. Isn't that true?____
7. Why can't you just build the parking lot somewhere else? ____
8. Why don't we all walk over there now? ____

a. Everyone loves it.
b. Oh, it was a big mess.
c. No, but there were a couple of empty lots.
d. That's a great idea!
e. This is the perfect location.
f. Well, first we had to clean up all the garbage and stuff.
g. Well, it was really different.
h. Yes, it's a crowded neighborhood.

D. In what order does Susan say these things happened? Number the sentences in order.

___Susan and her friends built a fence.
___Susan moved to the neighborhood.
___Susan and her friends cleaned up garbage.
___The garden brought people together.
___Susan and her friends chose a lot.
___Susan and her friends planted trees.
___There were no injuries.