1. Look at the pictures. What can they have in common?

_____ _____ _____

_____ _____ _____

_____ _____ _____

2. Drag and drop words under the right picture in 1.

cinnamon buns holly turtle doves a smooch tinsel a nun booze a cork mistletoe

3. Listen to Sugar&Booze song

_____

4. Choose the right meaning of each expression from the song.

1. folks are mixin' and minglin'

   people are drinking and fighting red-fur animals are sniffing and catching the prey people are moving around and engaging with others at a social event

2. call me corny or cliché

   call me bad names

   you may find my words banal

   call me on my cell phone

3. light your fuse

   light a candle

   set something tense or exciting in motion

   give me a smile

4. hit the snooze

   hit a sleeping person

   do some boring work

   go back to sleep for a bit

5. give their dues

   admit there are some good things about someone or something pay your debts

   be in the line of duty

6. let it rip

   allow something to grow

   allow something to happen forcefully or without interference allow something to rot

5. Listen to the three verses from the song and fill the gaps _____

Bells are ringin' and a-jinglin' _____ are mixin' and a-minglin' Twlinklin' lights and _____ on the tree
How I love to keep the yuletide gay Call me _____ or cliché
But there's a reason that the season Brings so much joy to me

I love _____ and turtledoves in twos Holly, Ivy, _____ can take away my blues Kris Kringle and his reindeer friends
They endlessly _____
But the best part of the holidays is Sugar and _____

I love _____ and skating on the ice
But I glide right through December mixing _____ without Nice
So pour a nip into that nog
And let it light your _____ Because the best part of the holidays is Sugar and booze

Wake up, baby, don't you hit the _____ Just forget the headlines and the news
Pop a cork, put on your dancin' shoes Gimme _____ and hooch, and I'll give you a _____ And let's give those devils their _____

I like cider but _____ it spiked with rum
What good's a little drummer boy with no Pa-rum-pa-pa-pum?
Come New Year's Day we'll all _____ Those extra pounds to _____ But now's the time we let it _____ with

Sugar and booze

6. Choose all 10 words and names for alcohol mentioned in the song

booze VODKA turtledoves punch

Martini BEER cinnamon buns RUM smooch HENDRICKS mistletoe cider pastries hooch mittens gin

CORK nog Champaign Manischewitz