Mathematics
Length

Name the most practical unit of measure that you would use to measure each of the following: (mm cm m km)

1. The length of your finger
2. The length of a paperclip
3. The thickness of your Maths book.
4. The distance from Couva to Port-of-Spain.
5. The length of a pencil.
6. The length of a pencil point.
7. Your height
8. The height of your classroom.
9. The length of a cricket bat.
10. The length of a piece of carpet.
11. The length of the assembly area.
12. The distance between Trinidad and Grenada.