ENGLISH VOCABULARY FOR MUSEUMS

Choose among the following words:

statue, label, artefact, exhibition, relic, torso, gallery, collection, bust, exhibit, plinth, antiquity.

1. A is a room in which exhibits are exhibited.

2. An is an interesting object shown in a public exhibition.

3. An is a collection of historical artefacts shown to the public.

4. A is all of a museum's artefacts.

5. An is a historical object made by man.

6. An is another name for a historical artefact.

7. A is a historical object made interesting because of its age or associations with the past.

8. A is a brief description identifying an artefact in an exhibition.

9. A is a support on which an artefact is displayed to best effect.

10. A is the part of a sculpture that has lost its head and is usually lacking arms and legs, too.

11. A is a stone sculpture representing a human figure or an animal.

12. A is a sculpture of the head, shoulders and upper chest of a person.