Example: Justin

Holiday destination: Where is Justin going on holiday?
Transportation: How is he getting there?
Departure date: When is he leaving?
Length of stay: How long is he going to stay there?
Accommodation: Where is he going to stay?
Planned activities: What is he planning to do?

Student A

A. In pairs, complete the missing information about the four people's holiday plans by asking and answering questions with 'going to' and the present continuous.

Holiday information	Justin	Kate
Holiday destination		Australia
Transportation
Departure date	15th July
Length of stay	four days	one month
Accommodation	hostel
Planned activities		go surfing visit Sydney and the Great Barrier Reef

Holiday information	Anne	Kim
Holiday destination	Tibet
Transportation	by air	by car
Departure date		30th June
Length of stay
Accommodation		hotel
Planned activities	go trekking and climbing see Mount Everest

B. Afterwards, check your answers. Then, ask your partner about his or her holiday plans.

Student B

A. In pairs, complete the missing information about the four people's holiday plans by asking and answering questions with 'going to' and the present continuous.

Holiday information	Justin	Kate
Holiday destination	France
Transportation	by bus	by air
Departure date		25th November
Length of stay
Accommodation		beach resort
Planned activities	see the Eiffel Tower and the Louvre in Paris

Holiday information	Anne	Kim
Holiday destination		Hong Kong
Transportation
Departure date	10th April
Length of stay	three weeks	five days
Accommodation	guesthouse
Planned activities		go shopping visit family

B. Afterwards, check your answers. Then, ask your partner about his or her holiday plans.