Adventure, Safety and the Sea in Robinson Crusoe

When we landed on the beach, people from the town ran to help us. They fed us, gave us dry (a, sleep, clothes), a warm place to sleep and (find, enough, from) money to travel to London... I (neighbours, believed, had) I should decide my future 5and (that, friends, next) if I returned home I would (be, father, laughed) laughed at by my friends and (neighbours, place, gave). With the money I had left (home, from, enough) working with my father, I decided (help, with, to) stay in London and find a (with, ship, should) for my next voyage.
