On the weekend I worked hard while it was freezing outside on Saturday morning, I listened to the radio program while I was driving to the shops. When I was shopping, I talked to my daughter about school and her friends. We had lunch while we were shopping. In the afternoon when my kids went to their friend´s house I worked in the garden. In the evening I cooked dinner while I was watching television. After dinner I washed the dishes while my husband was watching the football. Later that evening I made necklace while I was watching a movie. When I was mopping the floor on Sunday morning, I thought about what to cook for the week. On Sunday morning I stayed inside while it was raining outside. I also read a book while lying on my bed.
