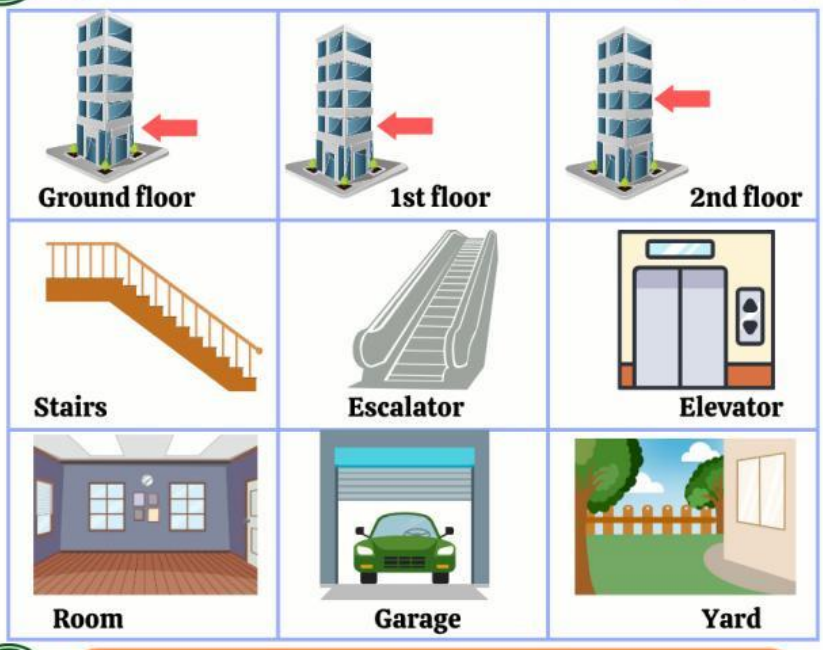
LESSON 11

Children mustn't go out alone.

1 Listen and repeat.



2 Listen and read.

Laura: Alright, this building is too high, don't you think, Nick?

Nick: Yeah, it is. We need to go to the fifth floor.

Laura: Can we use the stairs?

Nick: What? Are you serious? They are five floors. It's impossible. Let's use the elevator.

Laura: I am afraid of elevators.

Nick: Okay, don't worry. We don't have to use the elevator. We can use the stairs. After all, children under 14 mustn't use the elevator on their own; they must be accompanied by an adult.

Laura: That's true. Thank you, Nick.

3 GRAMMAR: Must/ Have to.

Must	Have to
We use must: • In the affirmative and question form to express obligation in the present and future. e.g. I must prepare dinner for tonight. Must we leave? • In the negative to express prohibition. e.g. You mustn't eat in the museum.	We use have to: • In the affirmative to express obligation in the present and future. e.g. Nick has to clean her room. • We form the questions with Do/Does, e.g. Do you have to work in the afternoon? Yes, I do./ No, I don't • In the negative form to express absence of obligation. (When something is not necessary.) We form the negative form with don't/doesn't, e.g. I don't have to clean my room every day.
