B 5.3 Look at the chart. Circle the correct answers below.

MAKING COMPARISONS (USING COMPARATIVE ADJECTIVES)
Horses are faster than dogs. I think cats are more interesting than fish.		tall → taller big → bigger friendly → friendlier intelligent → more intelligent good → better bad → worse
Which are more playful, rabbits or turtles?	Rabbits are more playful than turtles, but turtles are friendlier than rabbits. Both rabbits and turtles are playful.

1 For short adjectives (e.g., fast), we usually add -er to the end / use more + adjective.

2 For longer adjectives (e.g., playful), we usually add -er to the end / use more + adjective.

3 We start a sentence with I think when we are giving an opinion / stating a fact.

C 5.4 Complete the conversation. Then listen and check your answers.

Grace: Hey Sam, I heard you have a new pet. What is it?

Sam: It's a rabbit.

Grace: My neighbor has a new pet lizard. He says it's [1] _____ (interesting) a pet cat.

Sam: That's cool. I heard some people have spiders and snakes for pets.

Grace: Wow! Which do you think are [2] _____ (scary), spiders or snakes?

Sam: Well, snakes are [3] _____ (big) spiders, but I think spiders are [4] _____ (scary) snakes.

D Answer the questions.

1 Which are bigger, elephants or mice? Elephants are bigger than mice

2 Which are stronger, mice or rhinos? _____

3 Which are more intelligent, dolphins or chickens? _____

4 Which are friendlier, dogs or bears? _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS