If we were to give you a free ticket to ..... [1], where would you go? This question was raised in our office this week, and the more people who answered, the more I ..... [2] that there is no such thing as the perfect vacation. We all have different ..... [3], and all have different ideas of what makes a great trip. We asked three people on the street where they would go, and their answers are as varied as they were.

James C.: For me, the perfect vacation is somewhere away from people. I've always wanted to charter a boat and sail out into the ..... [4], and just relax under the stars. I think it's important to get away from the ..... [5] of the city, and in doing so, you can .....[6] on life. Going to some far-off, exotic location always helps me to relax and forget the stress of my daily life in the city.

Ana K.: When I travel, I want it to be as ..... [7] as possible – that's why I always prefer an all-inclusive package where everything is taken care of for you. It's my holiday – I don't want to be worried about planning! If ..... [8], I'd love to go on a round-the-world cruise.

Randa M.: I've got so many places on my ..... [9] I like to walk the road less traveled – I like to get away from the tourist hotspots and experience the real culture of a place. Hiking in the Andes or traveling around South America would be my next choice. I think it's important to get out of your comfort zone and try to experience the huge variety of different ..... [10]
