Verbs (Final)

Pick out Verbs:

1. My father makes peanut butter for my breakfast, everyday.
2. Grandma drinks tea in the morning, instead of coffee.
3. The cows and pigs rest in the barn.
4. My friend and I work on the project together.
5. Raveena irons his shirts before going to the office.
6. I wake up early, every morning.
7. We help our mother in the kitchen.
8. The birds chirp on the trees, by my bedroom window.
9. My teacher comes to school at 8 am, every morning.
10. We have to climb the stairs because the lift is not working.

Circle the correct verb:

Next month we (is/are) going for a vacation to Goa. My sister (like/likes) it when we go to Goa because she (get/gets) to swim in the ocean. My brother and I (want/wants) go deep sea - fishing while we (are/have) there. My dad (say/says) he is going to take us there this time. I sure (hope/hopes) the weather is good as we can go. While my mother and sister (swim/swims) in the ocean, we are going to catch fish for our dinner. Then, while mom (cook/cooks) fish, my dad and I (is,am,are) going to swim and (has/have) a good time.

Write the correct form of the verb given in the brackets:

1. Squirrels (love) to hide nuts in safe places.
2. They nests out of leaves and food in it. (build, store)
3. Most squirrels their nests in trees where branches (build, meet)
4. Imagine my surprise when there a squirrel in my mailbox.

   It building a nest in my mailbox. (was,were)
5. The poor little squirrel just as surprised as my mom and

   I (was,were).
6. Bills bad enough to receive in the mail, but a squirrel

   a shock. (is,are)
7. My dad putting a second mailbox, so the squirrel can have this one.
8. My mom and I (is,are) both careful now when we (check,checks) the mail.
9. We don't (want/wants) to discover another animal hiding inside.

Correct the underlined verbs to make a meaningful paragraph:

Next month we is going on our vacation to Florida. My sister like it when we go to Florida because she get to swim in the ocean. My brother and I wants to go deep- sea fishing while we is there. My dad say he is going to take us this time. I sure hopes the weather is good so we can go. While my mom and sister swims in the ocean, we are going to be catching fish for our dinner. Then, while mom cook the fish, my dad and I are going to swim and have a good time.

Some verbs are given here , along with different Subjects. Write the correct number in the column

Subject	Answer		Verb
He		1	walk my dog in the morning.
Ravi		2	helps her mother in the kitchen.
They		3	talk to my grandmother today ?
I		4	reads a book.
The gardener		5	play with our friends.
My mother		6	jogs in the park.
We		7	waters the plants in the garden.
Will you		8	drink milk.
We		9	sings songs while taking a bath.

She		10	eat fruits.