Social distancing

What is social distancing?

This is a phrase that we use to say it is necessary to maintain space between people. It is something we should do if we are sick. At the moment, we must do it to prevent the Covid 19 virus from spreading.

How do we social distance from other people?

The easiest way to do this is to stay at home. At the moment, we have to stay at home all the time. We should only go out for food or medicine. When we go out, we should wear a mask and we must not touch our face. We must wash our hands regularly and we shouldn't touch other people.
