Read the story and list the -le and -el words in the correct columns.

The cruel wizard Hansel imprisoned a poor damsel in a castle. The humble people walked to the chapel and to their guardian angel prayed, to bless them in the battle. Dressed in grey flannel they decided to travel. To the stable they went and horses they saddled. The hazel hunting spaniels from kennels they took. Hansel dressed in tinsel, atop his magical squirrel sat with a kestrel perched on his arm.

What a battle it was! Terrible rumble as men jostled to kill Hansel and free the damsel. Hansel was certainly in a pickle. So, he dropped through a magical funnel and escaped to a tunnel under the castle. Then mounted on his flying camel, the wizard flew holding his precious jewel.

On a table in the castle, stood a candle and a parcel. In the corner was a barrel, a chisel and a simple puzzle. Oh! It was a riddle for the simple people.

-le	-el
