

Interrogative sentences. Read the dialogues and write the missing questions about the underlined words. Remember to use capital letters.

Gina and Adam are chatting online.

Gina:when I called you yesterday?

Adam: I was at the cinema with a friends

Gina: Oh!?

Adam: We saw "Soul".

Gina:?

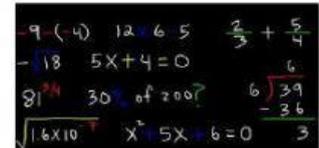

Adam: Yes, it was really good.

It's 10 a.m. Tom is calling his friend Andie.

Tom: Hi, Andie! How are you? right now?

Andie: Hi! Nothing important. And you?

Tom: I'm studying for next week's maths test.?

Andie: Yes, I did. I spent yesterday's afternoon doing that.

..... later?

Tom: I'm going running with my brother at 3 o'clock. Would you like to join us?

Andie: Sure!

Nancy and Pam are at a café having breakfast.

Nancy: Tomorrow is my sister's birthday party! I bought her a beautiful watch.

Pam: Oh!?

Nancy: Well, yes. But it was cheaper than last year's birthday present.

Nancy: last year?

Pam: I gave her a pair of gold earrings.

Nancy:?

Pam: Yes, she did. She loved them and she wears them all the time.

Nancy:?

Pam: The party starts at 9 p.m.

Nancy: Say "happy birthday" to her from me.

