Reading comprehension (eslcollectible)

Deshi turned off the computer and opened his English book, but it was difficult to concentrate on irregular verbs... "Have you finished your homework?" Deshi's mum opened the door. "Quick! Dinner is in half an hour!" He wasn't hungry. Deshi couldn't sleep that night and he was late for school the next morning.

School didn't go well that day. He failed a maths test and the English teacher shouted at him for not concentrating. At lunch time, he wasn't hungry. The food in the cafeteria just made him feel sick. And then he had to stay late after school for extra English and missed the bus. He decided to walk home. He crossed the park near his street, thinking about his school back in Shanghai and how he missed it. Later that evening, Deshi practiced his guitar with the headphones on. His friends in Shanghai thought he was very good but now he didn't want anyone to hear him playing. He was thinking about getting a a classical guitar .Deshi thought about how unhappy he was as he went down the stairs. His mum had no time for him, she was always working. School was really difficult and he had no friends in Boston.
